

DOINGS OF THE WORLD BOILED DOWN

Brussels.—A Liege couple, celebrating golden wedding anniversary, offered to bet guests that not one cross word had passed between them in 50 years. No takers.

Budapest.—Hans Hass filed most unique divorce petition in Hungary. Charged wife taught parrot to call him names.

Southampton.—Capt. Jas. Smith, transport Hohilla, retired from service after 42 years. Estimated he sailed 1,000,000 miles.

Denver.—Latest government survey shows that Pike's Peak has sunk 38 feet in last three years.

Ossining, N. Y.—Six Sing Sing prisoners, including ex-State Senator Stillwell, were taken to farm of Chas. J. Post to pick apples, unguarded.

Kansas City, Mo.—Gertrude Munagle, 26, suicided. Left note, "Life isn't worth living when you're ugly."

Oshkosh, Wis.—Young pupils in schools will be furnished glass of milk every morning at 10 o'clock at suggestion of hygiene instructor.

Washington.—Capture of town of Fresnillo, Zacatecas, by revolutionists under Malera, reported in state department advices.

New York.—Reported that billion-dollar mortgage, largest in history, will be placed on property of Pennsylvania Railroad.

Colchester, Conn.—Com. Charles A. Brand, 45, U. S. N., retired, who served in Spanish-American war, suicided. Ill health.

Grand Junction, Col.—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ross, 63 and 61, cremated when their home burned. Cause unknown. Loss $5,000.

Managua, Nicaragua.—Slight activity of Santiago volcano caused several violent earthquakes.

Murphysboro, Ill.—Ralph Coffey, cattle buyer, killed when gun accidentally discharged while he was crawling through a fence.

Shanghai.—Chinese war office promises steps will be taken against brigands who killed 300 people and burned two mission churches.

Cambridge, Ill.—Howard Smith arrested, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses.

Peoria, Ill.—Blarney Kluevner, Republican candidate for sheriff, dead. Heart failure.

Kittanning, Pa.—Miss Cora Bowser received $10,000 at end of 13 years for loan of $1 to W. H. Morrow.

Detroit.—Police located John Kowalski, wife deserter, when he demanded in letter that wife send some of his favorite soup to his boarding house in Allegheny, Pa.

—O—O—MEBBE SO

"Your cigar doesn't draw well, maybe it's got a button in it."

"A button? How would a button get in it?"

"Oh, off the wrapper, I suppose."

—O—O— WEATHER FORECAST

Overcast and continued cool Saturday. Sunday fair and somewhat warmer. Moderate northerly winds. Temperature Friday.—Highest, 57, lowest, 49.